Commanding Officer

Dear Junior High Students -

With this volume of the Shoreline we close another chapter in the history of North Shore High School. Next year "Junior High" will not only mean younger students; it will also mean a separate school.

As a Junior-Senior High School we have tried to find leadership training opportunities for the younger students to enable them to be ready to shoulder the responsibilities of upperclassmen when they moved up to Senior High School.

One measure of our immediate success in this aim will be the success we observe as the present eighth and ninth grades become the first freshman and sophomore classes of the Senior High School. Another measure of our success will be the degree to which next year's eighth grade moves into the leadership role of the upperclass of the new Junior High School.

Best of luck to all classes as they assume these new responsibilities.

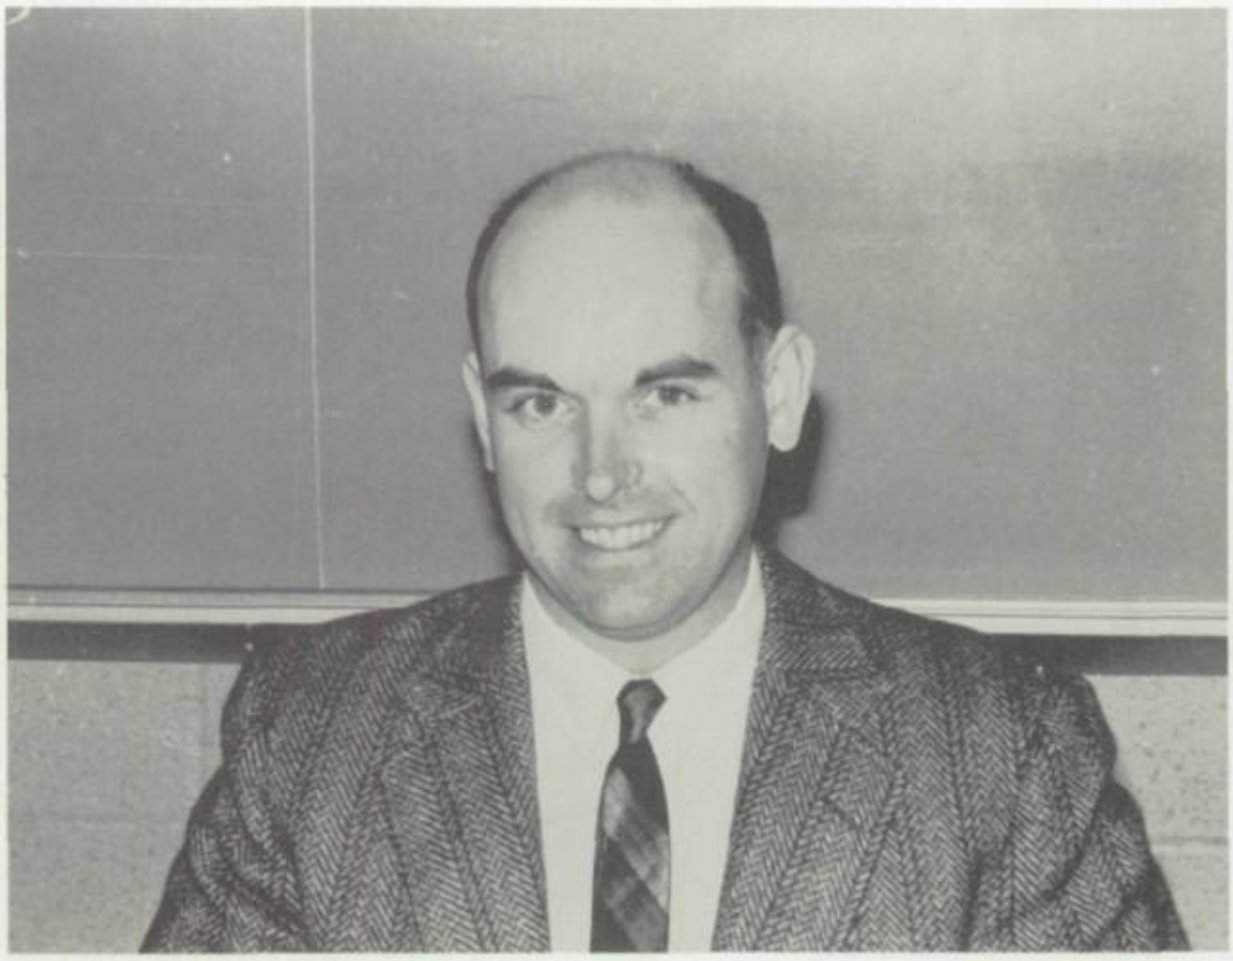
John E. French, Principal

Executive Officer

Dear Students,

Best wishes for continued success and happiness at North Shore High School.

SVEN O. ROSENGREN
Assistant Principal



We, the members of the "Shoreline" staff, dedicate this yearbook to our beloved Mr. Thompson. He has shown unfailing devotion to our school by directing the Junior Thespians and by being a loyal part of the English department.

Mr. Thompson has opened young minds to the true appreciation of the English language; in the fields of grammar, prose, poetry, and drama. With his keen perception, he is molding some of the nation's best future citizens.

This teacher's hard, unselfish work in managing our Junior Thespians is another example of his dedication to culture.

We are deeply obliged and grateful for all Mr. Thompson has given us and are looking forward to many impending resourceful years.

Half of the big gym was used for playing volleyball and the same for basketball in which Miss Scott refereed. During apparatus the girls used the horse, buck, rings, ropes, and parallel bars with Miss Scott's help.

Miss Scott has a busy schedule. Aside from her daily classes, she finds time to go three days a week after school so that Junior High after school sports may exist.

Freshman Class Will

We, Elaine Ruby, Sue O'Neal, and Sue Glenn, leave our hysterical giggles in Algebra to any three eighth grade girls who happen to think Mr. Williams is funny.

We, Greg Sterling, Jeff Hollman, Gerard Kenny, Ruth Osmer, and Joan Boston, leave to next year's Latin scholars Mr. O'Connor's great jokes.

I, Lorraine Buehler, leave to Mr. Thompson my small handwriting.

We, Patty O'Mitty and Jane Schneider, leave our energetic athletic ability to any daring souls.

We, Roxane Reid and Peter Birer, leave our Reid-Birer tradition to any future members of the clan.

I, Phyllis Hohenrath, leave to my cousin Donna my successful ability to blush.

We, Mr. Fenn's Freshman classes, leave to him a gold tie clasp.

We, Jane Cummings, Sandi Barton, Joan Levine, Danita Fleischman, Jane Schneider, and Betty McManus, leave our great cheerleading ability to Meridith, Rita, Nancy, and all other likely prospects.

We, Theresa Marazzo and Mary Ann Boehm, leave Mr. Eschen one pair of suspenders and to Mr. Bergovoy, we leave a giant sized bottle of sedatives.

We, Dave Halperin, James Kellner, and Ray Gallon, leave to Miss Thomas one set of detailed plans for the invasion of Albania.

I, Valerie McLaughlin, leave 9th grade trials and tribulations to anyone who wants them.

We, Mrs. Lord's eighth period class, leave "Kuddel and Karl" to drive her crazy again next year.

I, Cathy Hayes, leave my walk to anyone who needs it.

We, Carol Sanderson, Isabel Avirett, and Lorraine Buehler leave to Mr. Floyd's future students charter membership in his apple-polishers club.

I, Linda Windels, leave to any worthy 8th grader a worn out manual entitled, "How to waste valuable class time."

You may think this is the end . . . Well it is!
